Five Lies Every Battered Woman of Faith Need to Stop Believing was written by a Christian woman who lived a secret life of fear and shame as a battered wife for over two decades. She wholeheartedly believed each of the lies that she has written about; lies that kept her bound. The good news that she has been set free from abuse and is walking in the safety, healing, and wholeness that God intends for every woman. Powerful and moving, Five Lies Every Battered Woman of Faith Needs to Stop Believing, will bring clarity, hope, and encouragement to any woman of faith who is living in an abusive situation.
