Enter the strange and compelling comic book world of Eric Haven. Collecting The Tales To Demolish series and The Aviatrix. Deconstructing the tawdry form of the traditional comic book, Haven builds layers of dark, dorkish humor to undermine the expectations of certain familiar genres. A series of short comics that deconstructs while it celebrates classic comic book tropes. Eric Haven is a producer of the popular television show Mythbusters. He has been producing unusual and fascinating comics for many years.
